

Information for students studying Art in Year 12 at Latymer

Before you start in Year 12 at the Latymer School please read Ways of Seeing by John Berger.

Now select a single page from the book and you create a response to this page. This can be in any way that you deem appropriate; painting, drawing, sculpture, performance, photography, sound and any other method that you wish to use.

Bring your piece with you to your first lesson, don't worry this is not a test but a chance to explore your own individual approach to the subject.

Enjoy and see you at the beginning of the year!
